

User Agreement for Documents Comprising the Jacques Delors Archives – Presidency of the European Commission (1984-1994)

Article 1 :

The communication and usage (reproduction and representation) of the documents comprising the Jacques Delors Archives - Presidency of the European Commission (1984-1994), are subject to the Intellectual Property Code of French law, modified by law 2006-961 of 1 August 2006, relative to author rights and related rights in information society, as well as to the following conditions.

Article 2 :

During consultation the user agrees:

- To respect the compulsory elements and fulfill them in a precise and clear manner whatever be the method of exploiting the archival documents;
- To respect the moral and property rights of the authors and right-holders of the Jacques Delors Archives, Presidency of the European Commission (1984-1994);
- To respect right to quote as defined in the Berne Convention (article 10 and 10 bis 1°);
- In case of publication, to inform the Jacques Delors Institute of the reuse of archival documents in indicating his names, surnames, telephone number, accompanied by the bibliographical reference of the publication in question by email to the address versini@delorsinstitute.eu.

In case of having a copy in his or her possession, the user agrees:

- Not to communicate the documents to a third party.
- Not to use that copy for public representation or commercial ends.

I,, fully understand the rules concerning the use of the documents comprising the Jacques Delors Archives - Presidency of the European Commission (1984-1994) and, hereby agree to abide by them in full.

Done in, on the

Signature (accompanied by the handwritten words, “read and approved”)